    - viii. Sender data,
    - ix. Recipient data,
    - x. additional information (such as available services, Track ID, reference number).
  - d. Preview of the map of GLS Poland Quick Parcel points and Parcel Lockers.

4. Technical requirements

1. The technical requirements necessary to use the Application are as follows:
  - a. Operating Systems:
    - i. Android: version 11.0 (API level 29) or later,
    - ii. iOS: version 16.0 or later
  - b. Hardware requirements:

- i. Android:
  - minimum amount of RAM: 2 GB,
  - recommended amount of RAM: 4 GB or more,
  - free disk space: at least 100 MB,
  - processor: 64-bit ARM or x86 processor,
  - required Google Play Services
- ii. iOS:
  - compatible devices: iPhone 6s and newer,
  - iPad: iPad Air 2 and newer models,
  - free disk space: at least 100 MB,
  - processor: 64-bit ARM processor
- iii. Additional requirements:
  - active Internet connection (Wi-Fi or mobile data),
  - the latest operating system updates installed,
  - granting the required authorizations of the Application.

5. Rules for using the Application

1. The Application shall be used by Service Recipients who meet the requirements described in the Terms and Conditions, have Internet access, a telephone number registered in a Polish mobile operator's network, and also, in the case of a Logged-In User, an active E-mail Address, if they choose to assign it to the Account.
2. The Service Recipient shall, with regard to the use of the Application, refrain from carrying out any unlawful activities, which are understood to include, but not be limited to:
  - a. interfering with the Application software;
  - b. using the Application directly or indirectly for an unlawful purpose that is contrary to the law, the Terms and Conditions or good morals;
  - c. using the Application in a manner that violates the rights of GLS Poland or third parties;
  - d. using the Application with software other than the software provided by GLS Poland;
  - e. supplying data of an unlawful nature to the Application, as well as data causing, for example, system dysfunction or violating the law, the Terms and Conditions or good morals;
  - f. copying, distributing, reproducing, sharing and using the Application, including by incorporating it into other Applications or websites;
  - g. using the Application via robots or other automated software.
3. In case of suspicion that the Service Recipient is engaging in the activities described in section 2 above, the Service Provider shall have the right to suspend the Service Recipient's ability to use the Services and take investigative actions. The Service Provider reserves the right to discontinue the provision of Services to the Service Recipient if it confirms the actions described in section 2 above.
4. The Logged-In User shall not transfer the Application Login and Password to other persons. Transferring this information may lead to the disclosure of Logged-In User data to unauthorized persons for which GLS Poland shall not be responsible.
5. The Service Recipient shall carry out the necessary updates to the Application, in accordance with the recommendations of GLS Poland in this regard appearing in the Application in the form of messages containing information about the need to carry out an update of the Application, together with a button allowing to carry it out on the Service Recipient's Device.

6. Failure to perform the update by the indicated deadline may result in malfunctions of the Application, for which GLS Poland shall not be responsible.

6. Account Registration

1. The use of the Application functionalities described in the Terms and Conditions by a Non-Logged User referred to in section 1, item III shall not require the creation of an Account in the Application.
2. The use of the functionalities of the Application described in the Terms and Conditions by a Logged-In User, referred to in section 2, item III, shall only be possible after creating an Account in the Application.
3. In order to create an Account, it is required to register it, verify it to activate the Account, and accept the Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy.
4. Account registration is performed using the Application via the registration form provided therein. Verification of Account registration involves sending an SMS message with a 6-digit code to the phone number provided; the code must then be entered in the Application. After entering the code, the Account is activated, allowing for establishing the first Password. If the User does not enter the SMS code in the Application immediately after receiving it within the validity period of this code (2 minutes from delivery to the Device), the Account will not be activated and the User will need to re-initiate the process described above in order to activate it.
5. The Logged-In User shall provide a real telephone number to which they have access in the course of registration. If the User provides a phone number that does not exist or a phone number to which the Logged-In User does not have access, the Account will not be activated and the registration will fail.
6. The first Password shall be created by typing it twice in the fields indicated in the form.
7. The first Password as well as each subsequent Password set in the Application by the Logged-In User must have at least eight characters and consist of at least one lowercase letter, one uppercase letter, one digit and one special character.
8. Successful registration of an Account in the Application shall be confirmed by a relevant message visible in the Application confirming this fact.
9. At the moment of effective creation of an Account in the Application, a Service Contract shall be concluded between GLS Poland and the Logged-In User the subject of which is the use of the Account.
10. Each Logged-In User may register and have only one Account in the Application. It is impossible and prohibited to create several Accounts using the same phone number.

7. Use of the Account by the Logged-In User

1. Logging in to the Application shall be performed by entering the Login (phone number) and Password created during registration in accordance with item VI of the Terms and Conditions.
2. A Logged-In User may change the Password from the level of their Account in the Application as well as set a new Password if they have forgotten the previously used Password. The Password shall be changed by entering the existing Password and then entering the new Password twice.
3. If a Logged-In User forgets the Password previously used in the Application, they can select the "Forgot Password" option on the Application login screen, which will initiate the Password reset process. In order to reset the Password, the Logged-In User shall provide the Login to the Application, enter the verification SMS code sent to their phone number and create a new Password by entering it twice in the required fields of the form.
4. A Logged-In User may run the Application on more than one Device for the same Account. The Logged-In User can view in the Application all the Devices that are currently using it. If a Logged-In User is logged out of the Application on one of the Devices, they shall automatically be logged out of other Devices as well.

5. In order to expand the ability of a Logged-In User to view Parcels and Shipments in the Application, they may additionally provide an E-mail Address in the Application in order to assign it to the Account. This allows for reviewing information concerning Parcels/Shipments for which GLS Poland does not have the provided phone number of the Logged-In User.
6. In order to assign an E-mail Address to an Account, it is necessary to enter it in the appropriate field of the form, and then enter in the Application the 6-digit code sent to the E-mail Address to be assigned to the Account.
7. A Logged-In User cannot change the Login or E-mail Address assigned to their Account, as long as the Logged-In User decides to associate it with the Account. It is only possible to create a new Account using a different phone number.
8. Registration and use of the Account by a Logged-In User is free of charge.
9. All Application access data shall be treated as confidential and shall not be shared with unauthorized persons.
10. The Account Service Contract shall be terminated by deletion of the Application from the Device by a Non-Logged User or deletion of the Account by a Logged-In User, which may occur at any time during the use of the Application.
11. The Logged-In User can delete the Account by pressing the "Delete Account" button, available in the Application. In order to confirm the deletion of the Account, the Logged-In User shall be required to enter the current Account Password in the Application and then confirm the message with information about automatic logout from the Application.
12. Deletion of the Account causes a Logged-In User to lose access to the data stored within the Account. After re-registration of the Account in the manner described in the Terms and Conditions to the same phone number, a Logged-In User shall only have access to data and information regarding Parcels and Shipments delivered after the date of re-registration.

8. Responsibility of GLS Poland

1. GLS Poland, as the Service Provider, shall provide Services in an uninterrupted manner but reserves the right to technical interruptions due to the need for maintenance, modernization or servicing activities. The Service Recipient shall not be entitled to any claims against GLS Poland due to the interruptions in providing Services.
2. Service Recipients shall be notified of technical interruptions at least one day prior to the planned technical interruption by sending PUSH notifications from the Application and/or e-mail messages in case the E-mail Address is assigned to the Logged-In User's Account.
3. The Service Provider shall not be liable for any technical problems related to the malfunctioning of the electronic equipment of the Service recipient or the User, including insufficient parameters of such equipment that prevent the use of the Application, the malfunction of the operating systems required to use the Application and the software other than the Application installed on the Device.
4. The Service Provider shall not be liable for the consequences of the Service Recipient's use of the Application and Services provided therein in a manner that is contrary to the law, the principles of social coexistence or the provisions of the Terms and Conditions.
5. The Service Provider shall not be liable for the risks associated with the Service recipient's use of the Application and the Services available therein. In particular, the Service Provider shall not be liable for damage that is not a consequence of their fault or negligence, as well as for damage where the exclusive cause is an action of the Service Recipient or third parties for which the Service Provider is not responsible.

6. The Service Provider shall not be liable for interruptions in access to the Application resulting from failures or cases of malfunction of data communications systems occurring independently of the Service Provider and over which they have no control.
7. The Service Provider shall not be liable for any false, incorrect or incomplete data provided by the Service Recipient in the course of registering an Account or using the Application.
8. The Service Provider shall not be liable for the consequences of disclosure of the phone number, Login, E-mail Address or Password by the Service Recipient or for providing access to the Application, Account or Device on which the Application is installed and can be used available to unauthorized persons.
9. The Service Provider shall not be liable for a Force Majeure event.

9. Complaints about Services

1. The Service Recipient shall have the right to file complaints concerning the Services provided by GLS Poland through the Application.
2. Complaints shall be submitted electronically to the dedicated e-mail address gls@gls-poland.com or in writing (by registered mail) to the address: General Logistics Systems Poland Sp. z o.o., ul. Tęczowa 10, 62-052 Komorniki.
3. The complaint shall include:
  - a. first name and surname,
  - b. the phone number used to create an Account in the Application, and in the case of a Non-Logged User, the contact phone number,
  - c. the e-mail Address used in the Application or the e-mail address to which the complaint resolution is to be sent,
  - d. indicated reasons for the complaint, including a description of the irregularity/problem in the Application functioning with the date of occurrence.
4. If additional information is necessary to process the complaint, GLS Poland may ask the person submitting the complaint to supplement it.
5. Complaints shall not be related to circumstances for which GLS Poland is not responsible, as well as circumstances related to the activities of entities for whose actions GLS Poland is not responsible.
6. Complaints shall be processed by GLS Poland within 14 calendar days from the date of receipt. The person submitting the complaint shall be notified by e-mail to the e-mail address indicated in the complaint about the manner of processing the complaint.
7. GLS Poland reserves the right not to process complaints not containing the data listed under section 3 and not supplemented by the applicant, or those concerning the circumstances indicated under section 5.
8. The complaint procedure described in this paragraph applies only to Services provided through the Application. All complaints regarding the services of acceptance, movement and delivery of parcels – postal parcels within the meaning of the Postal Law Act of 23 November 2012 and cargo shipments within the meaning of the Transport Law Act of 15 November 1984 or other services provided by GLS Poland shall be processed in accordance with the rules set forth in the relevant Terms and Conditions of GLS Poland.

10. License

1. GLS Poland shall grant to Service Recipients a non-exclusive and time-limited license entitling Service Recipients to use the Application for its intended purpose. The license shall be granted from the time the Application is downloaded to the Device until the time indicated in section 5 below.

2. The license shall include the right of the Service Recipient to reproduce the Application only to the extent necessary for downloading, launching, using and storing it on the Device.
3. The license shall not entitle the Service Recipient to grant further licenses.
4. The Service Recipient shall not modify, decompile, distribute, sell, lease, rent, lend or otherwise market the Application under the granted license. The Service Recipient shall also not bypass, change or remove the security features of the Application.
5. The License shall expire for a Non-Logged User when the Application is uninstalled from the Device, and for a Logged-In User when the Account is deleted.

11. Provisions concerning Consumers

1. Termination of the Contract in the manner described in item 7.10 made by the Consumer within 14 days from the date of conclusion of the Contract (installation of the Application or creation of an Account in the Application) shall be treated as a withdrawal by the Consumer from the Contract pursuant to Article 27 section 1 of the Consumer Rights Act, it does not require any reasons and does not involve any costs for the Consumer. In order to withdraw from the Contract, the Consumer may also use the form template, which constitutes Appendix 1 to the Terms and Conditions.
2. The Consumers' specific rights with respect to Digital Content and Digital Services are described in Appendix 2 to the Terms and Conditions.
3. None of the provisions of the Terms and Conditions shall be binding on Consumers to the extent that they could violate their rights and deprive them of the protections provided by generally applicable laws.

12. Final Provisions

1. The current version of the Terms and Conditions is available in .pdf format at: <https://gls-group.com/PL/en/meet-mygls> and for Users logged into the Application in the panel My Account – General – Terms & Conditions: "Regulamin Aplikacji myGLS (myGLS Application Terms and Conditions)".
2. The Service Provider reserves the right to make changes to the provisions of the Terms and Conditions at any time without stating a reason. The Service Provider shall notify all Service Recipients of the change to the Terms and Conditions by PUSH notification from the Application, by SMS or by e-mail, depending on the extent of data provided and consents given by the Service Recipient in question.
3. The effective date of the amendments to the Terms and Conditions shall not be less than 14 days from the date of notification. In case of non-acceptance of the Terms and Conditions, the Logged-In User shall inform the Service Provider or delete the Account. Failure to accept the new content of the Terms and Conditions shall result in termination of the Service Contract.
4. The governing law for the resolution of all disputes related to the Terms and Conditions shall be Polish law.
5. If any provision of the Terms and Conditions proves to be ineffective or invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of the Terms and Conditions.
6. Contents of the Terms and Conditions may be recorded by the Service Recipient by printing or copying and saving on a medium.
7. In matters not regulated in these Terms and Conditions, the provisions of the generally applicable Polish law shall apply, including, but not limited to the Civil Code and the Act on Provision of Services by Electronic Means.

8. These Terms and Conditions become effective on April 1, 2025.
9. The appendices constitute an integral part of the Terms and Conditions.

Appendix no. 2 to the Terms and Conditions of myGLS Application

Consumer Rights Regarding Digital Content or Digital Service

§ 1. Delivery of Digital Content or Digital Service

1. The Service Provider shall provide the Digital Content or Digital Service to the Consumer immediately after the conclusion of the contract, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.
2. The Digital Content shall be deemed delivered when the Digital Content or the means that allows access to the Digital Content or downloading of the Digital Content have been made available to the Consumer or to a physical or virtual device that the Consumer has independently selected for this purpose, or when the Consumer or such device has accessed it.
3. The Digital Service shall be deemed delivered when it has been accessed by the Consumer or the physical or virtual device that the Consumer has independently selected for this purpose.
4. If the Service Provider has failed to deliver the Digital Content or Digital Service, the Consumer shall request the Service Provider to deliver them. If the Service Provider fails to deliver the Digital Content or Digital Service immediately or within an additional period of time expressly agreed by the parties, the Consumer may cancel the contract.
5. The Consumer may withdraw from the contract without asking for delivery of the Digital Content or Digital Service if:
  - a. it is clear from the Service Provider's statement or circumstances that it will not provide the Digital Content or Digital Service, or
  - b. the Consumer and the Service Provider agreed, or it is clear from the circumstances of the conclusion of the contract, that the specified date of delivery of the Digital Content or Digital Service was of significant importance for the Consumer, and the Service Provider failed to deliver them within this timeframe.
6. The burden of proof of delivery of the Digital Content or Digital Service shall be on the Service Provider.
7. If the Consumer withdraws from the contract, the provisions of § 6 shall apply accordingly.
8. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if the contract provides for delivery of Digital Content via a tangible medium.

§ 2. Compliance of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract

1. The Digital Content or Digital Service shall be in compliance with the contract if, in particular, the following are in compliance with the contract:
  - a. description, type, quantity, quality, completeness, functionality, compatibility, interoperability and availability of technical support and updates;
  - b. suitability for the specific purpose for which they are needed by the Consumer, about which the Consumer notified the Service Provider at the latest at the time of the conclusion of the contract and which the Service Provider accepted.
2. Moreover, in order to be considered in compliance with the contract, the Digital Content or Digital Service shall:

- a. be suitable for the purposes for which the Digital Content or Digital Service of such type is normally used, taking into consideration the applicable laws, technical standards or good practices;
  - b. occur in such quantity and have such features, including functionality, compatibility, availability, continuity and security, as are typical of Digital Content or Digital Service of that kind and which the Consumer may reasonably expect, taking into account the nature of the Digital Content or Digital Service and the public assurances made by the Service Provider, its legal predecessors or persons acting on its behalf, in particular in advertising or on a label, unless the Service Provider demonstrates that:
    - i. it did not know about the public assurance in question and, using reasonable judgment, could not have known about it,
    - ii. prior to the conclusion of the contract, the public assurance was rectified in compliance with the terms and form in which the public assurance was submitted, or in a comparable manner,
    - iii. public assurance did not affect the Consumer's decision to enter into the contract;
  - c. be delivered with accessories and instructions that the Consumer can reasonably expect to receive;
  - d. be consistent with the trial version or announcement that were made available to the Consumer by the Service Provider prior to the conclusion of the contract.
3. The Service Provider shall inform the Consumer about updates, including security features, necessary for the Digital Content or Digital Service to be in compliance with the contract and provide them to the Consumer for a period:
  - a. of delivering Digital Content or Digital Service specified in the contract under which delivery is performed on a continuous basis, or
  - b. reasonably expected by the Consumer, taking into account the type of Digital Content or Digital Service and the purpose for which they are used, as well as the circumstances and nature of the contract, if the contract provides for delivery of the Digital Content or Digital Service at one time or in parts.
4. If the Consumer fails to install the updates provided by the Service Provider in accordance with § 2 item 3 within a reasonable period of time, the Service Provider shall not be liable for the non-compliance of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract resulting solely from the lack of updates if:
  - a. it informed the Consumer about the update and the consequences of not installing it;
  - b. failure to install or improper installation of updates was not due to errors in the installation instructions provided by the Service Provider.
5. The Service Provider shall not be liable for the non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract to the extent mentioned under § 2 item 2 or 3, if the Consumer, at the latest at the moment of conclusion of the contract, has been expressly informed that a specific feature of the Digital Content or Digital Service deviates from the requirements for conformity with the contract set forth under § 2 item 2 or 3, and has expressly and separately accepted the lack of a specific feature of the Digital Content or Digital Service.
6. If the contract provides for the delivery of Digital Content or Digital Service on a continuous basis, the Digital Content or Digital Service shall remain in compliance with the contract for the period of delivery specified in the contract.
7. The Digital Content or Digital Service shall be delivered in the latest version available at the time of conclusion of the contract, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

§ 3. Liability of the service provider

1. The Service Provider shall be liable for the non-conformity with the contract of the Digital Content or Digital Service delivered at one time or in parts, which existed at the time of their delivery and became apparent within two years from that time. Non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract, which became apparent before the expiration of one year from the time of delivery of the Digital Content or Digital Service, shall be presumed to have existed at the time of delivery.
2. The Service Provider shall not rely on the expiration of the time limit for determining the non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract specified in § 3 item 1, if it has deceitfully concealed the non-conformity.
3. The Service Provider shall be liable for the non-conformity with the contract of the Digital Content or Digital Service delivered on a continuous basis, which occurred or became apparent at the time they were to be delivered under the contract. The non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract shall be presumed to have occurred during this time, if it became apparent during this time.
4. The Service Provider shall be liable for the non-conformity with the contract of the Digital Content or Digital Service to the extent regulated in § 2 item 3, which occurred within the time specified in this provision.
5. The presumptions set forth in § 3 item 1 and 3 shall not apply if:
  - a. the Consumer's digital environment is not compatible with the technical requirements which the Service Provider informed them about in a clear and understandable manner before concluding the contract;
  - b. the Consumer, informed in a clear and understandable manner prior to the conclusion of the contract about the obligation to cooperate with the Service Provider, to a reasonable extent and with the least burdensome technical means, in order to determine whether the non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract in a timely manner is due to the characteristics of the Consumer's digital environment, fails to comply with this obligation.

§ 4. Non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract

1. If the Digital Content or Digital Service is not in compliance with the contract, the Consumer may demand that it be brought into compliance with the contract.
2. The Service Provider may refuse to bring the Digital Content or Digital Service into compliance with the contract if bringing the Digital Content or Digital Service into compliance with the contract is impossible or would result in excessive costs for the Service Provider.
3. In assessing the excessiveness of costs for the Service Provider, all circumstances of the case shall be taken into consideration, in particular the significance of the non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract and the value of the Digital Content or Digital Service conforming to the contract.
4. The Service Provider shall bring the Digital Content or Digital Service into conformity with the contract within a reasonable time from the moment the Service Provider is informed by the Consumer of the lack of conformity with the contract, and without undue inconvenience to the Consumer, taking into consideration their nature and the purpose for which they are used. The cost of bringing the Digital Content or Digital Service into compliance with the contract shall be borne by the Service Provider.

§ 5. Statement on price reduction or rescinding the contract

1. If the Digital Content or Digital Service is not in compliance with the contract, the Consumer may submit a statement on price reduction or rescinding the contract when:
  - a. bringing the Digital Content or Digital Service into compliance with the contract is impossible or requires excessive costs pursuant to § 4 item 2 and 3;
  - b. the Service Provider has failed to bring the Digital Content or Digital Service into compliance with the contract in accordance with § 4 item 4;
  - c. the non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract continues even though the Service Provider has attempted to bring the Digital Content or Digital Service into conformity with the contract;
  - d. the non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract is significant enough as to justify either price reduction or rescinding the contract without first resorting to the remedy set forth in § 4;
  - e. it is clear from the Service Provider's statement or circumstances that it will not bring the Digital Content or Digital Service into conformity with the contract within a reasonable time or without undue inconvenience to the Consumer.
2. The reduced price shall remain in such proportion as the value of the Digital Content or Digital Service not in compliance with the contract remains to the value of the Digital Content or Digital Service in compliance with the contract. If the contract stipulates that the Digital Content or Digital Service be provided in parts or continuously, the price reduction shall take into consideration the time during which the Digital Content or Digital Service have been non-compliant with the contract.
3. The Consumer shall not withdraw from the contract if the Digital Content or Digital Service is provided in exchange for payment of a price, and the non-conformity of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract is insignificant. Non-compliance of the Digital Content or Digital Service with the contract shall be presumed to be significant.

§ 6. Service Provider's obligations

1. Following the withdrawal from the contract, the Service Provider shall not use content other than personal data provided or created by the Consumer in the course of using the Digital Content or Digital Service provided by the Service Provider, except for content that:
  - a. is useful only in connection with the Digital Content or Digital Service that was the subject of the contract;
  - b. applies only to the Consumer's activities during the use of the Digital Content or Digital Service that was the subject of the contract;
  - c. has been linked by the Service Provider with other data and cannot be disconnected without excessive difficulty;
  - d. was produced by the Consumer jointly with other Consumers, who can still use it.
2. The Service Provider shall make available to the Consumer, at the Consumer's request and at its expense, within a reasonable time and in a commonly used machine-readable format, the content produced or provided by the Consumer in the course of using the Digital Content or Digital Service, other than personal data, except for the content referred to in § 6 item 1 letters a–c.
3. The Service Provider may demand the return of the tangible medium on which it delivered the Digital Content within 14 days from the date of receipt of the Consumer's statement on rescinding the contract. The Consumer shall return the medium immediately and at the expense of the Service Provider.

4. The Service Provider shall not be entitled to demand payment for the time during which the Digital Content or Digital Service was not in compliance with the contract, even if the Consumer actually used it before withdrawal from the contract.
5. The Service Provider shall refund the price only for the portion corresponding to the Digital Content or Digital Service that does not comply with the contract, and to the Digital Content or Digital Service that the obligation to be provided has been annulled due to withdrawal from the contract.
6. The Service Provider shall immediately refund to the Consumer the price due as a result of exercising the right of rescinding the contract or price reduction, no later than within 14 days from the date of receipt of the Consumer's statement on rescinding the contract or price reduction.
7. The Service Provider shall refund the price using the same method of payment as used by the Consumer, unless the Consumer has expressly agreed to a different method of refund that does not entail any costs for the Consumer.

§ 7. Change of Digital Content or Digital Service

1. The Service Provider may make a change to the Digital Content or Digital Service that is not necessary for its compliance with the contract only if the contract so provides and only for good reasons indicated in the contract. However, the Service Provider shall not change the Digital Content or Digital Service provided on a one-time basis.
2. Making the change referred to in § 7 item 1 shall not involve any costs on the part of the Consumer.
3. The Service Provider shall inform the Consumer in a clear and understandable manner about the introduced change mentioned under § 7 item 1.

§ 8. Termination of the contract

1. If the change mentioned under § 7 item 1 materially and adversely affects the Consumer's access to or use of the Digital Content or Digital Service, the Service Provider shall inform the Consumer reasonably in advance on a durable medium about the characteristics and date of the change and the right mentioned under § 8 item 2 or 3.
2. In the case mentioned under § 8 item 1, the Consumer may rescind the contract without notice within 30 days from the date of the change mentioned under § 7 item 1, or the notification of this change, if the notification was made later than this change. § 6 shall apply accordingly.
3. The provisions of § 8 item 2 shall not apply if the Service Provider has provided the Consumer with the right to retain, at no additional cost, the Digital Content or Digital Service in accordance with the contract, in an unaltered state.

§ 9. Rules for the use of content

1. In the case of rescinding the contract for the provision of Digital Content or Digital Service, the Service Provider, starting from the date of receipt of the Consumer's statement on rescinding the contract, may not use any content other than personal data provided or created by the Consumer during the use of Digital Content or Digital Service provided by the Service Provider, except for content that:
  - a. is useful only in connection with the Digital Content or Digital Service that was the subject of the contract;
  - b. applies only to the Consumer's activities during the use of Digital Content or Digital Service provided by the Service Provider;

- c. has been linked by the Service Provider with other data and cannot be separated from it or can be separated only with disproportionate efforts;
  - d. was produced by the Consumer jointly with other Consumers, who can still use it.
- 2. Except for the cases mentioned under item 1 letters a–c, the Service Provider shall, upon the Consumer's request, make available to the Consumer the content other than personal data that was provided or created by the Consumer in the course of using the Digital Content or Digital Service provided by the Service Provider.
- 3. The Consumer shall have the right to recover the Digital Content from the Service Provider free of charge, without hindrance from the Service Provider, within a reasonable time and in a commonly used machine-readable format.
- 4. In the event of rescinding the contract, the Service Provider may prevent the Consumer from further use of the Digital Content or Digital Service, in particular by preventing the Consumer from accessing the Digital Content or Digital Service or by blocking the user account. This provision shall not affect the rights of the Consumer mentioned under § 9 item 2.
